

Domestic

Products

While bicycle racks and rails have traditionally been developed for commercial and industrial applications, Securabike has developed a range of innovative products that provides orderly storage and packing options around the home.

Many of the domestic range of products can be attached to walls allowing bicycles to be safely stored off the floor where space is often limited.

The domestic range also includes stands for securing your bicycle during repair and maintenance.

Advantages

- Protects bicycles from damage
- Frees up valuable floor space
- Can be locked-on for extra security

Applications

- Garages
- Carports
- Rumpus rooms
- Basements
- Hallways
